

Lancaster, Pa.

Madame Butterfly, courtesy of the Lancaster Museum of Art

The “Don Perlis: Narrative Reborn” exhibition at the Lancaster Museum of Art in Lancaster, Pa., celebrates the career of Perlis, a well-known New York figurative painter who was associated with the New Realism school of art in the 1970s. His lushly painted, large-scale canvases draw inspiration from contemporary events, literature, theater and, most recently, opera. In this exhibition Perlis’ paintings address urban issues such as the subway vigilante Bernard Goetz, literary characters such as Florentino Ariza from Gabriel García Márquez’s Love in the Time of Cholera, and scenes inspired by Don Giovanni, Tosca, La Traviata and Madame Butterfly. Through Nov. 20. Lmapa.org

Savor Charlotte

Look closely at Charlotte and you'll discover a lot. A lot of five-star restaurants for conventioners to indulge. A lot of vibrant clubs for unwinding. And a lot of inspiration for your next meeting. Find a lot more at 800-722-1994 or charlottesgotalot.com Charlotte's got a lot.